What is the New York Forward Loan Fund?

- New York Forward Loan Fund (NYFLF) is a new economic recovery loan program aimed at supporting New York State small businesses, nonprofits and small landlords as they reopen as a result of the COVID-19 outbreak and NYS on PAUSE. NYFLF has been established with the goal of providing affordable working capital loans to severely impacted businesses over the coming months. Small businesses, nonprofits and small landlords who received a loan from either the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) Paycheck Protection Program or SBA Economic Injury Disaster Loan for COVID-19 are not eligible to apply to NYFLF at this time.

Who is funding the New York Forward Loan Fund?

- New York Forward Loan Fund is a partnership led by the State of New York with funding and support from Apple Bank, BNB Bank, Evans Bank, M&T Bank, Morgan Stanley, Wells Fargo, BlackRock Charitable Fund, Citi Foundation, Ford Foundation and the Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. Foundation.
- Additional support is being provided by Local Initiatives Support Corporation (LISC) Fund Management, the Community Reinvestment Fund, USA, and Calvert Impact Capital.
- Loans will be made available through five local Community Development Financial Institutions (CDFI) lenders — Accion East, Community Preservation Corporation (for small landlords), National Development Council, Pursuit and TruFund Financial Services.

When does the New York Forward Loan Fund Open?

- The pre-application portal for small business and nonprofits will open on May 26, 2020 at Noon Eastern Daylight Time for industries and regions that have been reopened.
- The pre-application portal for small landlords who currently operating occupied residential units will open on May 26, 2020 at Noon Eastern Daylight Time for all regions.
- Participating CDFI lenders will begin reviewing pre-applications starting on June 1 for those industries and regions that are reopened.
- Pre-applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis as regions and industries are phased to reopen.

How much funding is available?

- There is an initial funding of over $100 million, with 5% reserved for nonprofit organizations, 30% reserved for small landlords and 65% reserved for small businesses.

What kinds of businesses does the New York Forward Loan Fund help?

- The fund is aimed at helping small businesses, nonprofits and small landlords in the State of New York, targeting businesses and nonprofits across every county and region of the state and nearly all industries.
- Small Businesses: To qualify, small businesses must employ 20 or fewer full-time equivalent (FTE) employees, have realized gross revenues of less than $3 million per year and have suffered a direct economic hardship as a result of COVID-19 related social distancing policies and stay-at-home order that have materially impacted their operations.
- Nonprofits: To qualify, nonprofits must employ 20 or fewer full-time equivalent (FTE) employees, be a 501(c)(3) or faith-based organization providing direct services, have an annual operating budget of less than $3 million per year and have suffered a direct economic hardship as a result of COVID-19 related social distancing policies and stay-at-home order that have materially impacted their operations.
- Small Landlords: To qualify, small landlords must own no more than 200 units, with no single property greater than 50 units. Properties must be located in a low or moderate (LMI) census tract or meet a rent test where property rents are affordable to tenants who are low or moderate income.

What are direct services?

- Direct services are a program or activity that works directly with an intended population. The term is used to distinguish such programs from those that seek to change conditions through advocacy or public education.
- Examples include but are not limited to daycare services, legal aid, food banks, soup kitchens, after school programs, senior services, educational programs, and clothing banks.

How do I know if my Industry/County/Region is eligible to reopen?

How do I know my information is safe to submit through your website?

- The online loan process is highly secure. The NYFLF platform goes above and beyond to protect your sensitive information. The platform uses TDE (Transparent Data Encryption) in SQL (Structured Query Language), which means the data is encrypted at rest. It also encrypts the data between the app server and the database and uses TLS (Transport Layer Security), which protects communications on the internet, for form submissions. You can also be assured that none of your information will be sold.

What if I don't speak English? What languages are supported?

- The online pre-application form on this site can be completed in English, Spanish, French, Russian, Chinese and Korean. CDFI partners may offer in-house support in English and Spanish. The State is working with community leaders on identifying additional language resources. If you need help with completing the form in a language other than English or Spanish, please contact an Entrepreneurship Assistance Center. See the Resources page for more information.

If I own more than one small business, can I apply for a loan for each of my businesses?

- If each business is a separate entity, has a separate tax ID and employs 20 or fewer full-time equivalent (FTE) employees, then you can apply for each of the businesses.

If I am a landlord of units and also a small business owner, can I apply for the two separate NYFLF programs?

- Yes. If each business is a separate entity, has a separate tax ID, and meets the respective requirements for each type of loan.

If my application is rejected by the CDFI that I choose on the online portal, and the match list had yielded other lenders as well, can I apply to another CDFI for a second look?

- Yes, you can apply to another participating CDFI lender if you match with multiple participating CDFI lenders. HOWEVER, the approval parameters for participating CDFI lenders are largely identical and we ask that if you do apply to more than one lender you ONLY do so if your loan has been rejected by another lender.

Can I simultaneously apply to more than one CDFI for the program?

- No. Due to the high demand, it will be difficult to process several loan applications for the same business as the same time and it may cause a delay in processing your application.

Can I use proceeds to refinance other loans that are not from CDFIs?

- No, these loans are for working capital to reopen the business. These cannot be used to refinance or pay off another loan.

Is the New York Forward Loan forgivable?

- No, this is not a forgivable loan. The borrower will need to pay back the loan with interest over a 5 year term.

What happens if I miss a payment on the loan?

- If you miss a payment on your loan, you will be assessed a late fee by the participating CDFI lender per their respective policies.
